

ASHLEIGH KIGGANS DIRECTOR CANDIDATE

Ashleigh Kiggans is a rising star in the Frederick real estate world. As the Vice President for MacRo, Ltd. her specialty is commercial/land sales and leasing. Since becoming a member of FCAR four years ago, Ashleigh hit the ground running.

She is current the chair for the FCAR YPN Committee and a member of the FCAR Leadership Support Forum. In addition to her work as a REALTOR®, Ashleigh is very involved in the Frederick Community. She was recently named one of Frederick Magazine's 2019 People to Watch. Ashleigh has also served as the President of the Board of Directors at Federated Charities in Downtown Frederick for the last two years.

In addition to a booming real estate career, Ashleigh is also a full-time student at Penn State University and will graduate in December 2019 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Law and Society.

Ashleigh graduated from the Frederick County Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Frederick County program in 2018.

"Being part of the Leadership Frederick County program has helped me grow my leadership skills and develop relationships throughout the county," Ashleigh says.

When Ashleigh isn't working or attending school, you can usually find her on the volleyball court. She has served for the past four years as a volunteer head travel volleyball coach with the Frederick Volleyball Club. She has also been involved in coaching other sports within the area.
